

REACH THE PEOPLE.
You can reach some of the people all the time.
You can reach all the people some of the time.
You can reach all the people all of the time, through the EAGLE.

ALL IN A NUTSHELL.
If you want business you must advertise.
The best advertising medium in the state is the EAGLE.

VOL. XIV. NO. 34.

WICHITA KANSAS, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 26, 1890.

WHOLE NO. 2067.

CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

To Buy Holiday Goods Regardless of Its Cost or Value

THE LARGE AND ELEGANT STOCK OF

CHAS. T. CHAMPION,

118 East Douglas Ave.

NOW IN CHARGE OF MORTGAGEES!

The stock comprises all the latest novelties in Christmas Goods books, Christmas cards, albums, baskets, pictures, paper, stationery, gold pens, in fact, items too numerous to mention.

Every Article Goes Regardless of Its Value

COME! Everybody buy your presents at this great sacrificing sale. Remember the number,

118 EAST DOUGLAS AVE.

C. T. CHAMPION'S STAND,

M. J. OLIVER, Receiver.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE HOSTILE SIOUX SURRENDERING TO THE MILITARY.

Formation of a Company to Promote Immigration from Europe to Brazil.

A Pennsylvania Judge's Opinion on the Attempt of a State to Interfere With Interstate Commerce.

Senator Paddock's Views on the Pending Elections Bill—An Attempt Being Made to Work up an Invasion of the Cherokee Strip—Notes.

PHILADELPHIA, N. D., Dec. 25.—Capt. Norville, Indian agent, has returned from Fort Benning and reports the Indians were there over. It seems that the Indians were the worst scared of anybody. They thought they were all to be massacred, or they would have come in long ago. When Gen. Miles asked them to surrender they did so—urged on a good deal by Agent Palmer's threats—no more, no more. This soon brought them to time, and the Indians here have given up their arms and have returned to the agency. At Fort Sully 140 Indians have surrendered. These include seventy of Sitting Bull's band and fifty from Rosebud agency. Narcisse Marcello, boss farmer, brought in 42 of Big Horn Indians. Over ninety-eight stands of arms were collected. All of the teams of the agency have been started to Dupres after the sick women and children. Many of the Indians are very ugly during the settlement, and quarreled continually over the terms of settlement.

A FORCED MARCH.
DICKINSON, N. D., Dec. 25.—Major Carleton's march, Tuesday night, with fifty-five cavalry, of sixty-five miles in fourteen hours, up the Cannonball, arriving at New England City at 8 a. m., complying with order to march. Rates by courier, to the effect that Captain Fountain, of the Eighth cavalry, was surrounded in Cave hills by 500 Indians. Two hours rest was taken at New England City, and then the march of fifty-five miles to Cave hills was resumed. His force arrived there this morning.

BRAZILIAN IMMIGRATION.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The bureau of American republics has received information of the organization of a company, the stockholders in which are European and Brazilian capitalists, to establish agricultural settlements on the public lands of Brazil. The government gives the land free and guarantees five per cent on a third of the capital of $2,000,000. The company will settle 5,000 European families in thirty villages, and give each farm on credit for ten years, and guarantee future immigration. All sorts of enterprises and manufactures will be established in the various settlements.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 25.—In the case of the commonwealth against George Paul, the Philadelphia agent of Brann & Fitz of Chicago, manufacturers of oleomargarine, to which a special verdict was rendered for selling oleomargarine as butter in an extended opinion summed up his conclusions as follows:

First—That the right of the state to enact police laws, at least when such laws prohibit the sale of articles without prohibition, would be legitimate subjects of commercial interchange, is subordinate to the power of the United States to regulate commerce between the states.

Second—The right to sell in the original package goods imported from another state if the latter are merchandise and legitimate subjects of trade and commerce is guaranteed by the United States, and though it can be regulated it cannot be prohibited by any state.

Third—The United States has the paramount right to declare what goods are merchandise and the regulations of their sale are reasonable.

Fourth—By an act of congress the United States has declared oleomargarine to be a merchantable article and has regulated its sale.

The act of the assembly does not regulate but prohibits the sale of oleomargarine; therefore such act cannot apply to the goods of the state in the special verdict and the defendant is not guilty as he stands indicted.

SENATOR PADDOCK'S VIEWS.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The Post tomorrow will say that Senator Paddock was in earnest when he warned the senate a few days ago that he would soon move to the pure food bill, and he will before long again take occasion to renew the warning. He will first give his party, however, a complete victory in the election of the bill or conclude to lay it aside.

In this connection it may be interesting to say that Senator Paddock has been misquoted in reference to the bill. He has not said that he will not touch it until the bill is introduced, while every man in the United States has a personal interest in congress relieving the present financial condition.

SENATOR PADDOCK'S VIEWS.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The Post tomorrow will say that Senator Paddock was in earnest when he warned the senate a few days ago that he would soon move to the pure food bill, and he will before long again take occasion to renew the warning. He will first give his party, however, a complete victory in the election of the bill or conclude to lay it aside.

In this connection it may be interesting to say that Senator Paddock has been misquoted in reference to the bill. He has not said that he will not touch it until the bill is introduced, while every man in the United States has a personal interest in congress relieving the present financial condition.

FOREIGN NEWS.

MR. PARNELL'S OPINION OF CLERICAL POLITICIANS.

The Irish Leader Will Resume the Fight After the Coming Paris Conference.

Messrs. O'Brien and Gill, the Irish Delegates, Arrive in Paris—Mr. Parnell on His Way to Meet Them.

The Great British Railway Strike Still Spreading—The Strikers Charged With an Attempt to Wreck a Train—Foreign Notes.

THE PARNELL MUDDLE.

DUBLIN, Dec. 25.—Before leaving this city today, Mr. Parnell said, in an interview, that, knowing the condition in Ireland, he never expected to win the election. The condition of the people, he said, almost surpassed belief. The pressure brought to bear upon the masses was unheard of. Was it not kind, he asked, for the priests to hold over their flocks threats of spiritual penalties? It was a serious matter, interference with the liberty of an elector could not be tolerated. But that was not all. Cases had occurred where there was the fullest proof that threats of personal violence were used. Had another Sunday elapsed before the voting, it was not improbable that the Parnellite votes would have been diminished in the districts where the people were not coerced. The Parnellites, said Mr. Parnell, polled 80 per cent of the vote in the districts. He continued: "The priests led the people like sheep. If a petition were lodged, it could be backed with such evidence as to prove undue influence, the priests would make the result in our favor certain."

"Mr. Scully," said Mr. Parnell, "was a strong Catholic, but if the priests are permitted to exercise their influence in elections Ireland will be lost. The general elections are not far distant, and I shall push forward, preparing for them."

What view do you hold of the prospects for the different parties?" Was asked. Mr. Parnell replied: "Should a dissolution occur soon, Mr. Gladstone will have but little chance of returning to power. As to my position, time is on my side. I expect to start for Paris Monday to meet Mr. O'Brien. Then I shall resume the campaign in Ireland, opening in Lancashire."

Mr. Parnell left for Kingston tonight. There was no demonstration on his departure.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—Mr. Parnell has arrived here on his way to Paris.

THE PARIS CONFERENCE.
BOULOGNE, Dec. 25.—Mr. Byrne, editor of the Freeman's Journal, has an interview today with Mr. O'Brien, lasting two hours. Mr. Byrne is a Parnellite, and endeavored to prepare the way for a conference between the two sections of the Irish party in Paris.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—Messrs. O'Brien and Gill, the Irish delegates, who have just returned from America, were here today by Messrs. McCarthy and Sullivan.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—A tug, having on board Messrs. McCarthy, Sexton and several personal friends of Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Gill, met the O'Brien, on which the Irish delegates arrived from America today, outside the harbor. The party gave the delegates a hearty reception. During the return trip of it it was to the pier, Mr. O'Brien held an animated conversation with his political friends. He declined to give the reporters his opinion of the present situation in Ireland, but he said that he was determined to inform himself of the events which had transpired since he left the United States. Mr. O'Brien stated that Mr. Gladstone had been very kind to him, and that he was very much interested in the Irish cause.

THE ENGLISH RAILWAY STRIKE.
LONDON, Dec. 25.—The English and Scotch railway societies have issued a joint manifesto, asking railway hands generally to abstain from helping the Scotch railway strikers. This morning, when the strikers were on the strike, the English railway companies, they are told, they too must strike.

DOVER, N. H., Dec. 25.—The Sawtelle murder case was concluded today. This has been a noted case in the state. Isaac Sawtelle being charged with having killed his brother Hiram. The arguments were commenced today at 9 o'clock and were concluded at 5 1/2 p. m., and after a recess of ten minutes, Judge De charged the jury and then the jury retired. At 7:40 announcement was made that the jury had arrived at a verdict. They were continued to their seats in the court room, and the foreman announced that they had found the prisoner guilty of murder in the first degree. The judge then delivered the sentence of the court as follows:

"Isaac B. Sawtelle, the sentence of the law, you being found guilty of murder in the first degree, is that you be imprisoned in the state penitentiary until the first day of July, 1901, and then be hanged by the neck until dead."

The prisoner was pale, but did not make a motion, except that he turned respectfully towards the judge when sentence was delivered. The defendant's counsel have moved for a new trial.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.
CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—A meeting of the general managers of the world's fair, held at the general offices of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy yesterday to devise plans for the fair. The meeting was held at the general offices of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy yesterday to devise plans for the fair. The meeting was held at the general offices of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy yesterday to devise plans for the fair.

CUT HIS THROAT.
SPRINGFIELD, Ariz., Dec. 25.—John M. Scoop, who shot and killed Grant LeBarre at the Peak Rock Mine Sunday night, was arrested and placed in jail here yesterday. Today he secured a razor while the prison keepers were not watching him, and cut his throat. He died within a few minutes.

ROBBERED.
MADISON, S. D., Dec. 25.—Last night two strangers entered the drug store of William Harriet, knocked him senseless, and stole $100 from his cash drawer. They were arrested today at Wiggins.

THE SPANISH TARIFF.

MADRID, Dec. 25.—The minister of finance has issued a decree, declaring that Spain must follow the protection movement of America and some of the European powers, and increase the duty on horses, mules and cattle, preserved and salt meats, flour and cereals.

OBITUARY.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—The archbishop of York, is dead.

DRIVEN BY GALES.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 25.—The coasting schooner Katie returned from West Coast today, bringing with her a fisher and eleven men of the wrecked bark Atlanta, which went down during the recent terrific gales.

Captain Mosher tells a story of frightful suffering by the crew of the Atlanta, which was owned by Pope & Talbot of San Francisco. She left Port Gamble December 15 with a cargo of lumber. On the 17th, when off Cape Flattery, a succession of heavy gales which she encountered carried away all her sails and on the 18th the vessel began to leak. On the 18th the mainmast fell and the vessel began to settle down. On the 19th the ship broke in two, leaving the crew with nothing but a cabin to float upon. They drifted all night and on the 20th managed to reach Clallam, where they received every attention at the hands of the men employed in the trading station there.

While at Clallam Captain Mosher learned that another vessel must have been lost, as Indians had found part of the ship's name with the letters "COW" on it. The United States consul, Mayers, has taken charge of the shipwrecked crew and will send them to Port Townsend tomorrow.

ONLY ONE FLAG.
HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 25.—Papers from Newfoundland represent the people of that land as being in a furious state of indignation over the official announcement that the motto vivendi between England and France is to be extended another year, and that meanwhile efforts will be made to effect a settlement with or without the assent of the Newfoundland parliament. The Colonial despatches Lord Kimberford's dispatch as the most nearly paddy state paper ever issued by the colonial office.

The Times advocates the transfer of the colony to France.

The Herald says: "We are determined that only one flag shall fly over Newfoundland, and that flag shall be the stars and stripes if England does not do her duty. There is a movement on foot in connection with this matter which will startle people when parliament meets."

POPULAR EDUCATION.
CHICAGO, Dec. 25.—It has been known for some time that Dr. J. H. Wood, president of the new Baptist university to be located in this city has made a rather startling educational proposition to the trustees. The nature of it was not known until last night, when the Rev. Dr. Goodspeed of the trustees outlined it. Dr. Goodspeed says: "The plan of Dr. Harper is one for college extension. It is proposed to bring the higher education within reach of the common people, and to do so it will be the purpose of the new university to operate through a series of local schools and academies scattered through the country. This plan has been generally misunderstood. All of these branches will, however, be under the supervision of the central institution of learning. Our great object will not be so much to graduate as to educate."

ITALIAN OUTCASTS.
NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—The 400 Italians who arrived today on the steamship Hildostan were evidently the output of some poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their passage to the United States than to keep them for years. They were the dirtiest and most ragged lot of ever arrived at this port. They carried no language and were clad in barely sufficient clothes to cover themselves. It is proposed to bring the poor house, the officials of which decided it would be much cheaper to pay their